

the National Parent Forum of Scotland

ENSURING PARENT VOICES ARE HEARD IN SCOTTISH EDUCATION

Let's Talk

By sharing your experiences, views and ideas, you can

- Help us to gather essential feedback on education
- Participate in the improvement agenda in Scottish education
- Strengthen family involvement in learning
- Contribute to the future development of Scottish education
- Be inspired by the ideas and experiences of others
- Enhance the educational experiences of children and families
- Learn and help others to learn
- Be part of our national network of parents

Working together for the benefit of all

We're Listening

Contact us: www.parentforumscotland.org

enquiries@parentforumscotland.org

f parentforumscotland t parentforumscot

Or join our database by emailing your name, your child(ren's) school and year group, and your local authority area to enquiries@parentforumscotland.org. This information will be confidential and will only be used by the National Parent Forum of Scotland.

We look forward to hearing from you.

The National Parent Forum of Scotland

- is a voluntary organisation
- provides a voice for parents/carers on education
- builds partnerships at national and local levels
- has parent volunteer representatives from each local authority area
- has parent representatives on national committees and working groups
- makes sure that the parent perspective is understood

