The National Parent Forum of Scotland Annual Conference - Saturday 5 October

Healthy, Happy Children

Date for your Diary:

A warm invitation to: The National Parent Forum of Scotland's Annual Conference for parents/carers and families, Saturday 5 October 2013, Bishopbriggs Academy, East Dunbartonshire. The theme of this year's conference is Health and Wellbeing.

Featuring: Our popular, inspiring seminars and workshops for parents/carers will offer opportunities to ask questions, share ideas and hear about keeping well, happy, safe and healthy from parents, young people and schools from different parts of the country. Scottish Qualifications Authority and Education Scotland will also provide input and seminars on Curriculum for Excellence and the new Qualifications on the day.

A range of lively activities will entertain children and young people. A crèche, a buffet lunch and a shuttle bus from Bishopbriggs Station will also be provided.

Our Keynote Speaker: The Scottish Government's Minister for Children and Young People, Aileen Campbell MSP, will outline the Government's plans for Scotland's children and young people.

Please do come along to this free event and contribute your ideas about our shared ambition for every child to have the best possible childhood in Scotland.
